The Grand Men Alarmed by the Temperance Agitation.

Henry Ziegenhein to be named for collector to check the Republican defection to Noonan-A Nonnan Caucus to be held this afternoon-Political Notes.

A Post-Dispatch reporter was this morning informed that the City Hall combination had made an important shift in its plans during the past few days, and that the ticket to be nominated by the Grand branch of the Republican party had been materially altered. It should be stated, however, that the change was not made in the nomination of Mayor Noonan, but in the nomination of the other members of the ticket. The report above mentioned involved a change in the nomination of the other members of the ticket. The report above mentioned involved a change in the nomination of the other members of the ticket. Impressario in danger of getting into a financial hole. The first change of programme has not indicated, so the public seems to think, a repetition of disappointments of previous years, and hence some efforts to purchase success.

THE ARMSTRONG MURDER. The Crew of the Wellington Examined and Remanded. LONDON, February 10.—The members of the crew of the British bark Wellington, charged with having caused the death of Capt. Armstrong, at sea, January 24, were again examined to-day. The witnesses examined before the coroner were re-examined by the court. The Treasurer appeared as the prosecutor. The judge told the first witness, he disbelieved his testimony and ordered him to be committed to prison.

A PROTECTORATE FOR TADAGUR. PARIS, February 10.—The Government has asked the Chamber of Deputies for a credit of $200,000 with which to organize a French protectorate at Okok, on Tadagur Bay on the west coast of the Gulf of Aden, for the better establishment of the French protectorate over Tadagur. The Tadagur country lies at the mouth of the Red Sea, not far from the district which is the possession of Italy.

Aided by the Kabbabish. KORTI, February 10.—The Kabbabish Arabs carried the baggage of the Royal Irish and Sussex Regiments on the way from Korti to Gaddi Wells, and from the latter place on the route to Gubat. The starting of the Sussex Regiment is expected for Monday. Four tribes are still friendly and provide camels for the expedition.

Indian Troops Not Going. LONDON, February 10.—A dispatch to this evening's Standard from Calcutta, dated today, states that the English Government yesterday cable an order for the dispatch of a brigade of Indian troops to Egypt, and at a later hour countermanded the order.

The Egyptian Finance Treaty. PARIS, February 10.—Le Temps says the Powers will sign the Egyptian finance treaty on or before the 15th.

The Flag Ordered Down. The cold wave which descended on St. Louis at 12:15 p. m. and the indications are that the temperature will rise to-morrow. There is a slight rise in the extreme Northwest. The lowest reached here last night was 5 below. The readings and change in the Northwest were as follows: Fort Buford, 39 below; a rise of 8; Moorhead, 28 below; a rise of 2; St. Paul, a rise of 1; St. Paul, a rise of 1; St. Paul, a rise of 1.

The Passenger Pool. NEW YORK, February 10.—Assistant Commissioner Pearson, of Mr. Fink's office, held yesterday for Louisville, Ky., to attend the meeting of the passenger pool which is to be held to-morrow. One hundred and thirty-nine railroads have been invited to send representatives to the conference. The subject to be discussed is the commission on passenger traffic.

Commercial Notes. In its weekly review of the British grain trade the London Express says that the wheat market has been a favorite influence; but the rains have prevented a favorable influence; but the rains have prevented a favorable influence; but the rains have prevented a favorable influence.

COMMERCIAL. The statement of the visible supply showed an increase of 17,000, instead of 60,000 as expected. The discrepancies between the daily reports as shown by stocks actually in store is the reason for the difference. The New York statement makes the increase 80,000. These wide discrepancies unsettled the faith of traders in statistical information of any kind and greatly lessened the effect of same on the market.

ANOTHER chapter in the history of gas

We give the first entries for the Prize Cabinet. Some one is certain to name the winners.

The theory that Colonel FRATHER is in Washington legging for Colonel BROADHEAD, does credit to his heart at the expense of his head.

The St. Louis Gas Company is a richer corporation to-day than it was yesterday, but we do not envy the stockholders of their feelings as they pocket the money.

REPRESENTATIVE CASTLEMAN does not want a militia. If Mr. CASTLEMAN had let his constituents know this before he was nominated he would not now be in the Legislature.

Is St. Louis had one man to represent her in the Legislature in all her delegation of nobodies there would be a bill passed to enforce inspection of gas meters and of gas in this city.

The Supreme Court decision of yesterday changes nothing and decides nothing—except St. Louis has a tremendous gas bill to pay. The legal aspects of the gas question remain as they were.

The Republican is slightly out in its geography in saying that "El Mahdi has seized Upper Egypt." He has never set foot in Upper Egypt; only in the Sudan, which is quite a different thing.

Any one can tell who will be in the Cabinet after the names are sent in, but it takes a smart man to name the Cabinet before hand. Who is ambitious to earning that distinction? Our columns are open to him.

Is the American hog makes his way into Germany, via the Canadian slaughter-houses, it will not be the first time it got there in a roundabout way. Bismarck has perhaps learned already how hard it is to make his fences "pig tight."

We do not like to promise an office to the lucky citizen who can name the Cleveland Cabinet, but we should say that the one who had such accurate discernment as to succeed in the attempt, would certainly have established a very strong claim on federal recognition.

EX-MAYOR EDSON of New York has made the discovery that he is not above the law. Having disregarded a restraining order forbidding him to usurp at the close of his term the appointing power of his successor, he has been sentenced to fine and imprisonment for contempt of court.

COLONEL WILSON is another one of the Gordon rescuers who has been rescued. The wreck of his steamer left him in a dangerous predicament on an island in the Nile surrounded by the Mahdi's men. The rescue of the rest of WOLABLEY's command is the heavy job to which the British Government is now bending all its energies.

The Republican insists that, in speaking of Col. J. G. FRATHER, the POST-DISPATCH should have said facile princeps instead of facile princeps. As our esteemed contemporary is proverbially ignorant of English, it ought to know a great deal about Latin. In the present case we intended to suggest, in a neatly classical way, that the Colonel was both facile princeps and also facile princeps.

THERE is not a bit of evidence connecting GAIL HAMILTON with the cruel rumors and insinuations about the Frelinghuysen family. But the war correspondents intimate that the belligerents have been conducting hostilities under the black flag, as it were, ever since the Frelinghuysen Thursday receptions were paralyzed by the Blaine Thursdays with the aid of a band of music and terpsichorean attractions. There is hardly any limit to the lex talionis in a social war conducted with such scoundrel bitterness.

The Supreme Court decides according to the law as it is presented, and under the law as presented before the Supreme Court the city must pay for the gas it used. But, we believe, the following facts could be proved if properly brought before the court. First, that the city, which owned one-fifth of the original stock of the St. Louis Gas Company, still owns one-fifth, with all the dividends thereon; second, that the city of St. Louis bought the works in 1853, and is entitled to have them, with all the profits since then on paying the price for them.

SENATOR VAN WYCK of Nebraska proposes to raise the parliamentary question as to how the House bill of last session declaring the Texas Pacific land grant forfeited came to be mysteriously transferred from the special to the general calendar of the Senate. As well ask the millionaires and railroad agents of that body what they are there for. A delegation of Iowa Republicans answer the question when they say that their State will certainly go Democratic if the Senate persists in refusing to take up and pass the House bill for the forfeiture of the Sioux City and St. Paul land grant.

CLEVELAND'S CABINET.

Our offer of a prize of $100 for a correct list in advance of CLEVELAND'S Cabinet appointment was intended partly as a recognition of the popular interest in the Cabinet question, partly as a stimulus to direct that interest towards practical results. With a view of aiding the researches of our subscribers we will hastily indicate the more prominent of the names thus far mentioned in connection with the Cabinet.

Of eligible men there is no scarcity in any of the localities that are likely to be most influential in the make-up of the Cabinet. New York presents such an array of names as MANNING, HEWITT, WHITNEY, KERRAN, General HANCOCK, Gen. F. C. BARLOW and General SLOCUM. MANNING'S refusal to accept the Treasury has prompted Mr. CLEVELAND to consider HEWITT or some other New Yorker for that position. He likes WHITNEY, but is said to think of him only in connection with some other position, as the Navy, for instance, in a certain contingency. Then Mr. TILDEN wants BARLOW made Secretary of War, while others are urging HANCOCK or SLOCUM for the same position, and it will not do to have too much New York in the Cabinet.

Governor LEON ARRETT, who would himself ably fill a Cabinet office, is urging STOCKTON of New Jersey for Secretary of the Navy, and if Gen. GEO. B. McCLELLAN of that State should be appointed Secretary of War the Democracy at large would be pleased with the selection.

If RANDALL refuses to leave the House, Pennsylvania has ex-Governor CURTIN and ex-Senator WALLACE, who are both Democrats of national reputation and great ability.

In New England, FRANK JONES of New Hampshire, and EATON, BARNUM and ex-Governors ENGLISH and WALLER of Connecticut, are much spoken of in this connection. Ex-Governor ENGLISH is not only a most capable and experienced statesman, but a very successful business man, and no man mentioned in that connection could go into the Treasury with more of the confidence of the business interests.

Coming West, Ohio looms up with such exceptionally strong men as THURMAN, PENDLETON, HOADLY and General DUBURN WARD; Indiana with HOLMAN, warranted to object to any further ranching in the Interior Department, and that great lawyer ex-Senator McDONALD for any position in reach; Illinois with General BLACK and WILLIAM M. SPRINGER who is supposed to be well equipped and eager to investigate the Interior Department; Wisconsin with VILAS, who is supposed to be already slated for a position, and Kansas with the eloquent Gen. C. W. BLAIR, a distinguished railroad attorney.

The Pacific Coast went for BLAINE and is hardly in the line of promotion, but talks of Gen. ROSENKRANZ for Secretary of War, FIELD and HUNTINGTON are said to be antagonizing ROSENKRANZ with Wilson of California, who is not so well known as his backers on this side of the continent.

Going South, it is understood that Mr. CLEVELAND wants to give the position of Attorney-General to one of the greatest and most conservative lawyers of that section, and has made up his mind that GARLAND of Arkansas is the man to have it, with BAYARD of Delaware for Secretary of State. But the party is loth to lose these two from the Senate, and there is a good deal of pressure for a different assignment of the South's portion. GORMAN and MERRILL of Maryland, JOHN S. BARBOUR and RANDOLPH TUCKER of Virginia, ex-Senator HENRY G. DAVIS of West Virginia, ex-Governor JARVIS of North Carolina, and BROWN, GORDON and LAWTON of Georgia are all decorated with lightning rods by their friends. JONAS of Louisiana has strong backing for Postmaster General, as has MONEY of Mississippi, and it is said that CLEVELAND'S mind runs much on LAMAR as a possible alternative for Secretary of the Interior, while WHITTHORNE's long connection with the House Committee on Naval Affairs brings him forward for Secretary of that department, though Gen. JAS. D. PORTER of the same State of Tennessee is also pushed for the same position.

If, as to-day's dispatches say, the Italian expedition proposes to open a line of communication between Massowah and Khartoum, it is likely to have an uncommonly lively time before the business is done. And we predict that if the Italians meet OSMAN DIONA they will get a great deal more than was bargained for. They are not of as good fighting stock as the British by any means, and as the British thus far have been barely able to hold their own against the Arabs, the Italians are liable to do much worse. And as Italy has no other provocation or purpose than the getting of a share of the Egyptian plunder, nobody need be sorry if her invading force, "welcomed with bloody hands to hospitable graves." As the matter stands at present, the brave people of the Sudan have as righteous a cause as any people ever had in any war. But a righteous cause does not always win; Providence usually being "on the side of the strongest battalions." Possibly, however, Providence may smile upon the weaker party this time.

In an otherwise appreciative notice of our offer of a prize of $100 for the straight tip on the Cabinet our esteemed contemporary, the Globe-Democrat, calls it "a prize with a string to it." It says: "The 'string' consists of the stipulation that the winner shall correctly guess the whole list of Cabinet officers. It is a very safe proposition from the standpoint of the POST-DISPATCH." This is an intimation that no one of our hundred thousand readers can guess the whole Cabinet. Perhaps our esteemed contemporary is right, but it seems to us that the distinguished editor of the Globe-Democrat does not understand the situation.

It is so long since he was a Democrat in good standing that he does not appreciate the activity, intelligence, and accuracy of the Democratic intellect. The danger is not that no one will give the correct list, but that too many will be successful. Indeed, we can hardly imagine such a person as a good Democrat who does not know who are going into the Cabinet. We propose to have that Cabinet named and published a full week before the inauguration.

An evening paper offers a prize of $100 for a correct prediction as to the seven members of Mr. Cleveland's Cabinet. It is a safe bet that any competitor can make as good a guess as the editor of the paper making the offer.—Republican.

The editor of this paper is, of course, barred out from his own competition, but if he should go into the business of guessing at the Cabinet and miss it as widely as the editor of the Republican did in guessing BROADHEAD, he would retire from journalism and seek more congenial occupation in a dime museum.

POLITICAL DRIFT.

Nearly one-fifth of the entire bonded debt of the United States has been paid in seven years.

Democrats who ought to know say that Tilden will oppose Mr. Whitney going into the President's Cabinet.

Commissioner WAGNET proposes to advise with the leaders of the great labor organizations. He wants an appropriation of $30,000 for the next year.

SENATOR VAN WYCK is a terrible thorn in the side of Francis Pickens in their attempt to pay the Government a just debt with another series of notes.

Mr. CLEVELAND knows how to hold his tongue, and his discretion is infectious; or else he doesn't impart much blabbering information to his interlocutors.

Five members of the Thirtieth Ward Republican Executive Committee in Philadelphia were expelled on Monday evening for refusing to give their allegiance to the regular ticket for City Council.

A BILL has been introduced in the New York Legislature to make it a punishable offense to send flowers or tokens of sympathy to a convicted murderer or felon in prison.

Col. Wm. F. VILAS is closing his business at Madison and intends shortly to resign his seat in the Wisconsin Legislature. The Cabinet-makers have an idea that Mr. VILAS is about to take up his residence in Washington.

It is whispered that if the Nicaragua Canal treaty had been ratified and a construction company organized from a very high official on its retirement from power might have been offered the presidency of the enterprise with a salary of $25,000.

Mr. MORRISSEY, who is a candidate for Assessor in Boston, has the valuable campaign aid of a body of female tax-payers, representing about $3,000,000 worth of property, who have interested themselves so far as to caisson the Mayor to urge their favorite's appointment to the office.

It is the highest degree creditable to the good sense of the country that out of its millions of citizens there were only thirty-seven cranks to present to Congress a petition against counting the Electoral votes of South Carolina, Alabama, Louisiana and Mississippi.

The Bismarck (D. T.) Tribune says there are hundreds of men in Dakota who have for the past six years been in the Republican conventions and many of them received nominations and were elected to office who are now claiming to be dyed-in-the-wool Democrats.

Among numerous candidates for Congress in Arkansas to succeed Senator-elect Jones in the Bureau of Labor, having published and endorsed in an interview printed in the Boston press a letter of Gen. Francis A. Walker, declaring that one part of Mr. Wright's duty would be to teach the wage earners that no amelioration of their condition could be effected by legislation. Mr. Wright, in his Singapore, has had a long and arduous journey to shorten the hours of labor, instruct factories, regulate child labor, to cause wages to be regularly paid in money, and other similar measures.

Texas legislators seek to increase the attractions of the Capital by a bill compelling the heads of State departments to divide the clerks equally between men and women. The older Senators support the bill with enthusiasm, and the younger men, with the exception of Gen. Sam Houston's son, denounce the plan as a disgrace to the State.

There is much feeling aroused among the leading labor organizations on account of Carroll D. Wright, the newly appointed Commissioner of the Bureau of Labor, having published and endorsed in an interview printed in the Boston press a letter of Gen. Francis A. Walker, declaring that one part of Mr. Wright's duty would be to teach the wage earners that no amelioration of their condition could be effected by legislation. Mr. Wright, in his Singapore, has had a long and arduous journey to shorten the hours of labor, instruct factories, regulate child labor, to cause wages to be regularly paid in money, and other similar measures.

MEN OF MARK.

HENRY GEORGE is mentioned as a possible Parliamentary candidate for Calcutta, Scotland.

No Irish patriot dare kick O'Donovan Rossa for fear his pantaloons may be lined with dynamite.

The venerable historian, George Bancroft, recalls with delight that he discussed Byron with Goethe at Weimar, and Goethe with Byron at Monte Nero.

CARNE has been issued to the marriage of Representative McADOO of New Jersey, and Miss Eva E. Hardy of Lynchburg, Va., at Stony Brook, Va., next Wednesday.

LIEUTENANT-GENERAL "PINK" BENDIRAN, in a dress suit with his young wife at an evening reception, is a decidedly capable looking little gentleman.

WOLABLEY has sole charge of newspaper dispatches, and he ought to send more complete reports as and magnificent victories than he does.

Mr. MALLOCK, author of "Is Life Worth Living?" has answered his own question in the affirmative as to become a candidate for a seat in the House of Commons at the next election.

It is not very flattering to Mr. Jeremiah O'Donovan, nevertheless the fact deserves to be noted, that the great mass of men seem to regard him as dynamite for revenue only.

COL. DWIGHT HALL, of Wallingford, Conn., who has a key left by Washington in Jeremiah Covington's house, dated October 18, 1798, will have it overhauled with silver and framed, to be sent to President Cleveland.

Just in time somebody takes up an old prediction of Gladstone's Topsy brother: "William will ruin his country and his queen and die a madman." But he still lives, though no doubt very "mad" over the news from Egypt.

Mr. FINK, the well-known railway pool commissioner, has tendered his resignation, and is getting ready for a three months' trip to Mexico. He says he has worked hard for thirty-five years and thinks he has earned a rest.

CHRISTOPHER SHERRER, of Tuckerton, Pa., who has just made an assignment, was always considered a model farmer, and his place was the resort of noted agriculturists from all over the State. It was generally supposed that he could get more money out of an acre of ground than any one else.

GEOFFREY PATTERSON denies the story that he would take a hundred horses and half a dozen men and go to the aid of the Southern States.

would enter the ministry when his term as Executive had expired. "I don't know how the story started," he says; "but I presume it was because I have made a number of addresses in churches, and was lay member of the last general conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church."

TEXAS is paying $300,000 a year in pensions to 600 alleged survivors of Sam Houston's command in the war of 1835-7. New applications are coming in all the time; fifteen were received in one day, recently, and the Legislature is trying to repeal the law on the ground that one-half or two-thirds of the claims now being made are fraudulent.

JAMES CARLILE, brother of Thomas, has much of the latter's nature. He is taciturn and uncommunicative, and expresses profound contempt for almost every body and everything. To a visitor recently he said, speaking of a school inspection they had just made: "Ye make a terrible do about education nowadays, by what was the case when I was young. The day at the school when I was nine years old, my teacher was hearin' me say my cat-brother, and I said 'he bollocks' instead of 'he bollocks.' He knocked me down and 'p'd my legs and bang me on the back; and I ran out on my lay at the fit of a hedge among doksens and nettles for three hale days."

THE METROPOLITAN PRESS.

What the Editors of the New York Journals are Saying To-day.

New York, February 10.—The World says: "Emancipate the President, and uphold a dangerous and unconstitutional concentration of power in the hands of an autocrat. It will be a good time to accomplish such a reform while a Democratic President is in power, who does not covet the enjoyment and distribution of spoils, and is not a partisan or selfish use of them."

The Sun says: "Cabinet guessing has been rampant during the past few days, yet we record with pleasure the fact that, with a few exceptions, all the guesses adhere to the opinion that Frank Jones of Portsmouth will be the Secretary of the Navy."

The Times says: "As the Senate has already passed a bill correcting the hasty legislation of the former session, increasing the fees of pension attorneys, its action yesterday, while the pension appropriation bill was under consideration, must be viewed as the outcome of the Senate's respect for its duties, and in no wise as an indication of its acceptance of the doctrine that pension appropriations are exclusively for the benefit of pension attorneys."

The Tribune says: "There is high authority at last for commending the wisdom of the able architect who insisted upon building his house first, and afterward drawing a plan for it. According to a distinguished Democratic Senator, Mr. Cleveland has not made up his mind yet what he believes, or what he wants, or what his policy will be. He is anxious at present about the selection of his Cabinet. All other things will come afterward," said this distinguished Democratic Senator. Mr. Cleveland has decided the names of some of his Cabinet, but he does not determine what his policy will be until he gets the preliminary question out of the way."

Was It Horace Greeley?

CHARLESTON, S. C., February 9, 1885. To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Who is usually quoted as the author of the article in the Post-Dispatch of the 7th inst. under the heading "The Cotton Industry," and obliges R. MACK, [We cannot recall the author of the remark. Information wanted.—Ed. Post-Dispatch.]

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

THEATRE—Henry Irving will not appear here this season.

SUBSCRIBER—There is no war in Europe that we know of.

A. F.—We cannot undertake to compile a list of marriage license laws.

THOMAS CAMPBELL—Copyright of a play is issued on application to the Librarian of Congress.

L. L. L.—The theatre is perfectly respectable, and any lady can visit the matinee with propriety.

J. G. S.—The name Bayard is pronounced as if spelled by-ard, with the accent on the first syllable.

K. A. S.—The dead and mute class, the only one in the city, is at the Jefferson School, Ninth and Wash streets.

SANDY—Sentence generally counts from the date when pronounced, but the court can, at its option, order it to begin from date of previous imprisonment.

J. W. WOLABLEY (Carbondale).—The fight in the Sudan is over the Egyptian claim to sovereignty of that country. When the claim was abandoned Egypt had some 80,000 men in garrison there, Gordon undertook to arrange for their peaceful departure, but failed. Then Wolabley was sent to get the garrison out of the country, but he also appears to have failed.

CITY NEWS.

The ball given under the auspices of the Woman's Relief Corps, G. A. R., will take place this evening at the Casino.

Thomas Vaughn, who, before dying, claimed to have been poisoned, was found by the Coroner to have died of cholera.

The National Suffrage Association held its forty-ninth annual meeting last night at their hall on the corner of Jefferson and Lucas avenues.

Small blame was discovered last night in J. P. Wallen's grocery store on Page and Prairie avenues. The damage to the building and its contents was about $2,000, fully insured.

At the regular monthly meeting of the German War Veterans, last night, it was decided not to appear in a body the next time our country is to be celebrated at Springfield, April 14, but to send delegates.

"The Fortnight" held a meeting Saturday evening at the Casino, and Mr. D. B. Booth, at Webster Groves, the subject chosen for the evening was "The Fortnight."

Chief Harrison received a communication from Mrs. H. W. Wainwright, No. 50 Fourth street, New York, asking for information as to the whereabouts of her son Morris, who is supposed to be in St. Louis.

The regular monthly meeting of the German War Veterans was held last night at Central Trust Hall. It was resolved that delegates to represent the association be sent to Springfield to attend the Lincoln Memorial celebration.

Thomas Robinson, a mulatto 30 years of age, who is believed to be one of the parties who robbed the National Bank, was arrested yesterday by Officers Doe and McGarry.

The Teachers' Committee of the School Board met last night, all the members being present. Several appointments were made. The resignations of Francis Z. G. Wilson and John A. Owen of the Clinton and Douglas Schools, which was announced last night, were accepted, and Henry W. Freitas and George J. Murphy appointed in their stead. Several leaves of absence were granted.

ALL OF 'EM WERE RICH.

A Very Mean Trick Played Upon Four Courts Practitioners.

When the army of jurists who defend the liberty of prisoners arraigned before Judge Cady arrived at the First District Police Court this morning, they found each prisoner credited with a handsome sum of money.
